

THE CORRECTIONAL PEACE OFFICERS FOUNDATION

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AWARD

NOMINATOR

PLEASE ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS CONCERNING THE NOMINEE:

BE SPECIFIC AND ATTACH ANSWERS TO THIS FORM.

CANDIDATES MUST WORK FOR A PUBLIC FACILITY TO BE CONSIDERED

1. What overall contribution has this officer/supervisor made to your work unit or department? Has this individual been responsible for any innovations, creative efforts, or assisted in other creative efforts? Please describe the nature and type of these innovations.
2. What personal characteristics does this employee bring to the job? Give specific examples of how these characteristics enhance job performance. Give examples of how this employee is consistently dependable, responsible, and efficient. Also, consider such things as leadership, honesty, objectivity, maturity, professional demeanor, respectability and interpersonal skills.
3. Has this officer/supervisor performed any exemplary or heroic activities, either at work or in the community, that you would want the awards committee to consider?
4. Does this individual take advantage of training opportunities, educational, or professional events which would enhance career growth, or other self-improvement opportunities?
5. What professional contribution has this individual made to Corrections, nationally or locally? How would you assess this individual's contribution to the professionalism of correctional officers as a whole?
6. Are there any noteworthy comments you would like to make about this individual? You may include miscellaneous civic, religious, or professional activities which would enhance the employee, the work unit, department, or the community?